Guidance Notes

These guidance notes explain the provisions of the RIBA Standard Professional Services Contract 2020 (2024 amendment) for the appointment of an Architect or Consultant providing architectural services and set out guidance on what to consider when completing the Contract Details and the Schedule of Services; they do not form part of the Contract.

Note: The Architect/Consultant must satisfy itself that it can comply with the requirements of regulation 11F (competence: general requirement) under Part 2A of the Building Regulations.

Summary of the Contract

- The RIBA Standard Professional Services Contract 2020 (2024 amendment) is divided into four main parts:
 - the Agreement
 - the Contract Details
 - the Contract Conditions
 - Definition of Terms
 - Clauses
 - the Schedule of Services.
- A Contract Checklist is included as an 'aide memoire' for the Architect/Consultant to confirm with the Client that all of the relevant parts of the Contract have been completed (but does not form part of the Contract).
- Additional briefing documents will also form part of the Contract if they are listed in item D of the Contract Details.
- The Contract is between the Client (the Party that wishes to commission the professional services, known as the 'Services') and the Architect/Consultant (the person or organisation performing the Services). Together they are referred to as the 'Parties' to the Contract.

When to Use this Contract

- The RIBA Standard Professional Services Contract provides comprehensive contract terms and is suitable where the Architect/Consultant undertakes a commission for architectural services on projects using any form of procurement subject to appropriate amendment of the Services.

- In a traditional contract, the appointment of the Architect/Consultant would be made by the Client commissioning the Project.
- The RIBA Standard Professional Services Contract is devised as an agreement between an Architect/Consultant and a business client¹ or public authority and is a 'construction contract' to which the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996 (HGCRA, also known as the Construction Act), as amended by Part 8 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009, applies.

¹ Business clients include charities, religious organisations and not-for-profit bodies.

Note: Where the Client is a public authority, it may be necessary to include additional, applicable provisions, including in relation to the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, and corrupt gifts and payments under the Bribery Act 2010.

- The RIBA Standard Professional Services Contract is not suitable for the appointment of the:
 - CDM Regulations Principal Designer: the RIBA recommends that the CDM Regulations Principal Designer is appointed under the separate RIBA CDM Regulations Principal Designer Professional Services Contract. If the Client fails to appoint a CDM Regulations Principal Designer (for a non-domestic client), the Client must fulfil the duties of the Principal Designer.
 - Building Regulations Principal Designer: the RIBA recommends that the Building Regulations Principal Designer is appointed under the separate RIBA Building Regulations Principal Designer Professional Services Contract.
 - Architect/Consultant by:
 - a 'domestic client' under the Building Regulations, where a 'domestic client' means a client for whom a project is being carried out which is not in the course or furtherance of a business of that client and/or
 - a 'consumer' under the Consumer Rights Act 2015, where a 'consumer' means an individual acting for purposes that are wholly or mainly outside that individual's trade, business, craft or profession.

For domestic and/or consumer clients, the RIBA recommends the use of the RIBA Domestic Professional Services Contract, which has the option for the Architect/Consultant to be appointed as the Principal Designer under both the CDM Regulations and the Building Regulations.

Client's Rights and Obligations

- The Client has various obligations under the Contract. The principal ones include:
 - informing the Architect/Consultant of the Project requirements and of any subsequent changes required and agreeing steps to mitigate the consequences, if any
 - providing the information which is necessary for the proper and timely performance of the Services
 - making decisions and giving approvals as necessary for the performance of the Services
 - paying the Architect/Consultant for the Services performed
 - appointing or otherwise engaging any Other Client Appointments required to perform work or services under separate agreements and requiring those appointed to collaborate with the Architect/Consultant.
- The Client also has rights under the Contract. The principal one is the right to suspend or terminate the performance of the Architect/Consultant's Services.

Architect/Consultant's Rights and Obligations

- The Architect/Consultant has various obligations under the Contract. The principal ones include:
 - performing the Services with due regard to the Project Brief
 - informing the Client in a timely manner of progress in the performance of the Services and, upon becoming aware, of any issue that may materially affect the Project Brief, Project Programme, Construction Cost or quality of the Project, and of any information, decision or action required in mitigation
 - collaborating with any Other Client Appointments appointed or otherwise engaged by the Client to perform work or services.

The obligations apply to the extent achievable using the standard of care outlined in clause 3.1.

- The Architect/Consultant also has rights under the Contract. The principal ones include:
 - the right to retain copyright in the drawings and documents produced in either paper or digital formats for the purpose of performing the Services (the Client is given a licence to copy and use the drawings and documents for purposes related to the construction of the Project or its subsequent use or sale)
 - the right to suspend or terminate performance of the Services due to the Client's failure to pay any fees or other amounts due.

The Agreement

- The Agreement is the part of the Contract that is signed and dated by both Parties and records the Client's and the Architect/Consultant's rights and obligations under the Contract. The Agreement should not be dated until both Parties have duly signed/executed.
- The Parties choose whether to sign the Agreement as a simple contract or as a deed. The choice determines the limitation period within which a Party can bring a claim for breach of contract, which is stated to be:
 - simple contract: 6 years from the date of Practical Completion or the date of completion of the last Services, whichever is the earlier
 - deed: 12 years from the date of Practical Completion or the date of completion of the last Services, whichever is the earlier.
- The choice of whether the Agreement section of the Contract is to be signed as a 'simple contract' or as a 'deed' also determines the formalities for executing the Contract.

Simple contract:

- can be signed either by individuals or in a representative capacity (e.g. for a company, LLP, etc.)
- when signed by individuals, there is no requirement for the signatures to be witnessed (although in the interests of certainty the Contract does allow for a witness to sign the Agreement section)
- when signed in a representative capacity, the Agreement section needs to be signed by two directors, partners or members, or a director and a company secretary, or a single director and witnessed by a third party.

Deed:

- can be signed either by individuals or in a representative capacity (e.g. for a company, LLP, etc.)
- when signed by individuals, there is a requirement for the signatures to be witnessed (a witness should be aged 18 or over and should not be a Party to the Contract)
- when signed in a representative capacity, the Agreement section needs to be signed by two directors, partners or members, or a director and a company secretary, or a single director and witnessed by a third party.

- In certain instances, the Contract may be deemed to be legally binding even if the Agreement section is not signed. For example, a legally binding contract could exist if the Client has instructed the Architect/Consultant to commence or undertake work on the basis of the unsigned Contract and the Architect/Consultant has acted on those instructions.

Completing the Contract Details

When completing the Contract Details, where an option APPLIES tick ☒ the box to confirm that the section has been adopted. Any amendments made by hand to the Contract should be initialled by both Parties.

The Contract Details provide the specific details of the Project:

- Items A and B – the Client and the Architect/Consultant: Provide details of the Client, the Client's named representative, the Architect/Consultant and the Architect/Consultant's primary point of contact. Note that if these details are changed at a later date, it is important that the Parties inform each other and agree in writing.
- Item C – Site Address: Provide the address of the site where the Project is to be carried out.
- Item D – Project Brief: Provide a description of the Project and the Client's statement of requirements for the Project for which the Services are being provided. The target Construction Cost and target Project Programme, such as dates for the submission of planning applications, tender issue, gateway submissions (HRBs only) or for the commencement and completion of building works, can be inserted. Include details of any additional briefing documents that will also form part of the Contract. The Project Brief may be updated from time to time, where agreed between the Client and the Architect/Consultant.
- Item E – Other Client Appointments: Give the details of any other consultant appointments (which could be individuals or organisations) or services appointments to be made by the Client to enable the Architect/Consultant to undertake work in connection with the Project. For example, appointments may include structural and building services engineers, cost consultants, etc.
- Items F, G, H and I – Basic Fee, Time Charges, Expenses and Payment: Specify:
 - the basis for determining the calculation of the Basic Fee (excluding VAT), e.g. a specified percentage applied to the Construction Cost, a fixed lump sum, time charges, design cost per square metre (gross or net) or any other agreed method (item F)
 - the intended purpose, number and/or frequency of meetings and visual site inspections that the Architect/Consultant is going to attend during the Project (item F)
 - the rates for any time charges (item G)
 - the arrangements for charging for expenses and disbursements (item H)
 - the payment frequency of the fees (item I).

To ensure that the Architect/Consultant's accounts issued to the Client are effective as Payment Notices as set out in clause 5.12, each invoice issued by the Architect/Consultant should incorporate the following wording:

This is the amount due in respect of the Services provided, calculated as set out in this account and in accordance with the Fees and Expenses agreed in our Professional Services Contract dated [insert date of Contract]. This invoice constitutes a Payment Notice complying with section 110A(3) of the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996 as amended by the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009. The payment due date is the date of this Payment Notice.

- Item J – Professional Indemnity Insurance: State the amount of professional indemnity insurance to be maintained for the Project, and any specific limitations in respect of claims arising on account of specific risks. The amount of professional indemnity insurance to be maintained for the Project should be reasonable in relation to the risks and should pass the reasonableness test under the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977.
- Item K – Dispute Resolution: The Parties may choose which dispute resolution method(s) they will use should a dispute arise. Adjudication is available to either Party to select at any time as a statutory right. Below is a brief description of each method:
 - Mediation involves a third party helping the Parties to try to come to an agreement resolving their dispute. If successful, mediation can be less expensive than other methods of dispute resolution and is therefore encouraged by the courts. In mediation, the Parties generally pay their own costs.
 - Adjudication involves a third party providing an independent decision on the dispute and is available to the Parties if the Contract is a construction contract under the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996. The decision is binding in law unless and until the dispute is determined by arbitration or litigation following referral by either Party. Adjudication is generally a faster process, but is not usually recommended for complex issues. The Parties pay their own costs unless they have agreed otherwise. The Adjudicator's costs are allocated at the Adjudicator's discretion, the greater part usually being allocated to the losing Party.
 - Arbitration is a confidential process which is an alternative to litigation and involves a third party (or parties) delivering a final and binding decision. Arbitration can only involve two parties, unless there is an express agreement to the contrary, so it would not normally be appropriate for multiparty disputes.
 - Litigation is an alternative to arbitration and involves a court delivering a final and binding decision. Litigation is public and decisions may be challenged in higher courts. The greater part of the costs are usually allocated to the losing Party.

If the Parties cannot reach agreement on a person to act as Mediator, Adjudicator or Arbitrator, either Party may apply for a nomination or appointment to be made by the Royal Institute of British Architects.

The Client can refer a complaint to the person named in item B of the Contract Details under the Architect/Consultant's internal complaints procedure, which will be provided upon request. The Client may also, or alternatively, refer a complaint to the appropriate professional body if the Architect/Consultant's conduct or competence appears to fall short of the standards in the relevant code(s) of professional conduct.

- Item L – Information Formats: If the Architect/Consultant is producing drawings and documents for the Project using computer aided design (CAD), any other proprietary software or building information modelling (BIM), these will normally be provided to the Client in PDF format only, unless an alternative format has been agreed and set out in item L of the Contract Details.
- Item M – Supplementary Rights: Set out the additional documents which should be appended to the agreement, such as Collateral Warranties and Third Party Rights Schedules.

The Contract and its Schedule of Services are designed to be used with such of the following supplementary documents as may be selected in item M of the Contract Details:

- Novation Agreement²
- Collateral Warranties³
- any other documents specified in item M of the Contract Details.

² See clause 4.8 of the Contract Conditions for suitable draft clauses. The RIBA recommends the use of the CIC Novation Agreement: Ab Initio (2018).

³ The RIBA recommends the use of the following: CIC Collateral Warranty: Consultant – Employer (2018) in favour of the Client post Novation; CIC Collateral Warranty: Consultant – Purchaser/Tenant (2018) in favour of purchasers/tenants; CIC Collateral Warranty: Consultant – Funder (2018) in favour of a financier of the development.

All of the abovementioned documents are available from the CIC at www.cic.org.uk. These and any other forms selected in item M of the Contract Details should be attached as numbered appendices to the Contract.

Before agreeing to enter into any supplementary rights agreements, it may be advisable to take legal advice and discuss the issue with an insurer/broker.

The Schedule of Services

- The Schedule of Services is used to define the Services to be performed by the Architect/Consultant for both non-HRBs and HRBs and maps the Services to the stages in the RIBA Plan of Work.
- There are four primary parts to the Schedule of Services:
 - Role Specifications – specify the architectural services roles to be performed, including any to be performed by subconsultants employed directly by the Architect/Consultant. Add any other roles required in addition to those included in the Schedule of Services.
 - Services – a comprehensive set of services for each of the architectural services roles is set out in the Schedule of Services.
 - Other Services – these are services that the Architect/Consultant could undertake on behalf of the Client for the Project. If these services are to be undertaken for the Project, they will either be included in the Basic Fee or charged on a time-based or lump sum basis.

- Additional Services – these services are excluded from the Contract but may be instructed as additional services, if the need arises during the Project, and are subject to additional fees.

- These Services are for a traditional form of procurement covering RIBA Plan of Work Stages 0 to 6. Services required as part of any ongoing (long-term) Stage 7 activities are not listed as these services will be commissioned as a separate professional services or operating contract. If the Architect/Consultant is novated at any point during the Contract, the Services post Novation can be subsequently struck out and amended or redrafted to accord with the services subsequently required.
- The completed Schedule of Services should accurately reflect the Client's requirements and the Services that the Architect/Consultant has agreed to provide, particularly where the Architect/Consultant is not to perform the full range of Services within a stage, or is only undertaking some stages, for example only providing services up to the submission of a planning application. There is also a provision in the Contract for the Architect/Consultant to provide additional services for an additional fee (not listed in the Basic Fee).
- Planning applications are generally submitted at the end of RIBA Plan of Work Stage 3 and should only be submitted when the threshold for information required has been met.
- Although the Services are described in simple terms, performance of the Services must be in accordance with the normal standards of the Architect/Consultant's profession.
- The Services being undertaken should be selected individually and ticked ☒ where an option APPLIES.

Note:

- Services that relate only to HRBs are denoted by shading.
- These Services are in addition to advising the Client whether the Project would include HRB Work if built in accordance with the Architect/Consultant's design once developed (regulation 11K(5) of the Building Regulations).

Contract Conditions

- The Contract Conditions set out in concise terms the rights and obligations of the Parties.
- The Contract uses the form of Novation commonly referred to as 'novation ab initio' meaning 'from the outset', rather than the alternative to Novation by way of 'consultant switch'.

Definition of Terms

- This sets out the abbreviations and defined terms with capital letters that are used throughout the Contract. For example: references to the Building Regulations mean the Building Regulations 2010 as amended; and references to an HRB mean a higher-risk building as defined in the Higher-Risk Buildings (Descriptions and Supplementary Provisions) Regulations 2023.

Subcontracting

- 4.2 The Architect/Consultant shall not subcontract performance of any part of the Services without the prior consent of the Client, and such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Any such subcontracting shall not relieve the Architect/Consultant of responsibility for carrying out and completing the Services in accordance with the Contract. Such consent shall not be required for agency or self-employed staff.

Other Client Appointments

- 4.3 If during the performance of the Services it would, in the opinion of the Architect/Consultant, be of benefit to the Client for it to engage Other Client Appointments with appropriate knowledge and experience to perform part of the Services and the Client agrees to make such an appointment, it shall be made without undue delay and the Client shall give written notice accordingly to the Architect/Consultant. The Architect/Consultant shall be relieved of responsibility and liability for that element of the Services. The Architect/Consultant shall collaborate with such Other Client Appointments.

- 4.4 The Architect/Consultant shall execute Collateral Warranties within 14 working days of a request to do so by the Client, or grant third party rights under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, to such parties and on such terms as are indicated in item M of the Contract Details.
- 4.5 Except where indicated in item M of the Contract Details, there is no intention to grant rights to third parties pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, other than to lawful assignees.

Novation

- 4.6 Subject to clause 4.9, the Client, having engaged the Architect/Consultant under the Contract in respect of the provision of consultancy services for a traditional form of Building Contract, may subsequently novate the Contract to a Contractor/New Client appointed to carry out the design and construction of the development under a design and build form of Building Contract by means of the Novation Agreement set out on terms to be agreed based on the template clauses in clause 4.8.
- 4.7 Novation shall be on terms which shall provide that from the point of Novation of the Contract both the Client and the Architect/Consultant shall release each other from all past and future obligations and liabilities under the Contract and the Architect/Consultant shall accept the Contractor/New Client in lieu of the Client in respect of all past and future obligations and liabilities and the Contractor/New Client shall accept the appointment of the Architect/Consultant as if the Contractor/New Client had been a Party to the Contract in lieu of the Client from the outset of the Contract, save that the Parties will acknowledge that, prior to the date of the Novation Agreement, the Architect/Consultant was performing the Services for the benefit of and solely on the instructions of the Client and not the Contractor/New Client.
- 4.8 In the event of a Novation, it is agreed that terms set out in italics in clauses 4.8.1 to 4.8.4 inclusive, or similar terms in all material aspects, shall be included in a separate Novation Agreement to be entered into by the Client, the Architect/Consultant and the Contractor/New Client:

(Where the Architect/Consultant has provided a Collateral Warranty or granted third party rights to the Client pursuant to clause 4.4, this wording shall be prefaced by: 'Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies the Client may have under a Collateral Warranty or Third Party Rights Schedule pursuant to clause 4.4')*
- 4.8.2 the Client and the Architect/Consultant and the Contractor/New Client hereby agree that the Architect/Consultant's appointment shall be deemed to have been made with the Contractor/New Client in place of the Client from the outset for all purposes and in respect of all rights, benefits, liabilities and duties thereunder, whether arising prior to, on or subsequent to the date of this novation agreement, including, without restriction, any limitation or exclusion of liability therein so that the Architect/Consultant shall have no greater or longer liability to the Contractor/New Client hereunder than it would have owed to the Client under the Architect/Consultant's appointment. The Architect/Consultant agrees that it shall not assert that the Contractor/New Client has suffered no loss solely because a breach of the Architect/Consultant's appointment occurred prior to the date of this novation agreement but the parties acknowledge that the Architect/Consultant in carrying out its obligations under the Architect/Consultant's appointment prior to the date of this novation agreement was acting for the benefit of and solely on the instructions of the Client
- 4.8.3 the Architect/Consultant hereby agrees to release and discharge the Client from further performance of the Architect/Consultant's appointment and all duties, liabilities, claims and demands whatsoever, whether arising prior to, on or subsequent to the date of this novation agreement and the Architect/Consultant accepts the Contractor/New Client in place of the Client under the Architect/Consultant's appointment
- 4.8.4 the Contractor/New Client agrees to perform all of the duties and accepts all the obligations of the Client under the Architect/Consultant's appointment and to be bound by all its terms and conditions in every way as if it had been named as a party to the Architect/Consultant's appointment in place of the Client from the outset.

- 5.5 Subject to clause 5.6, if the Architect/Consultant is involved in extra work or incurs extra expense for reasons beyond the Architect/Consultant's reasonable control, additional fees shall be calculated on a time basis in accordance with clause 5.2.4 at the rate(s) set out in item G of the Contract Details unless otherwise agreed. Matters in relation to which the Architect/Consultant shall be entitled to additional fees include, but are not limited to, where:

 - 5.5.4 performance of the Services is delayed, disrupted or prolonged.
- 5.6 The Architect/Consultant shall inform the Client on becoming aware that clause 5.5 shall apply. Clause 5.5 shall not apply to the extent that any change or extra work or expense arises from a breach of the Contract by the Architect/Consultant.
- 5.7 The Client shall reimburse the Architect/Consultant for expenses and disbursements in the manner specified in item H of the Contract Details.

Instalments of fees shall be calculated on the Architect/Consultant's reasonable estimate of the percentage of completion of the Services or stages or other services or any other specified method.
- 5.13 The Client shall pay the Notified Sum within 14 days of the date of issue of the relevant Payment Notice (which shall be the Final Date for Payment) unless:

 - 5.16.3 the ground for doing so or, if there is more than one ground, each ground and the amount attributable to it.

- 5.18 If no such notice is given, the amount due and payable shall be the Notified Sum stated as due in the Architect/Consultant's account. The Client shall not delay payment of any undisputed part of the account.

- 5.19 If the Client issues such a notice and the matter is referred to an Adjudicator who decides that an additional sum, greater than the amount stated in the notice of intention to pay less, is due, the Client shall pay that sum within 7 days of the date of the decision or the date which, in the absence of the notice, would have been the Final Date for Payment, whichever is the later.
- 5.20 The Client shall not withhold any amount due to the Architect/Consultant under the Contract unless the amount has been agreed with the Architect/Consultant or has been decided by any tribunal to which the matter is referred as not being due to the Architect/Consultant. All rights of set-off at common law or in equity which the Client would otherwise be entitled to exercise are expressly excluded.

This proportion is to be calculated on the basis that:
- 7.3.1 all other consultants, contractors and Other Client Appointments providing work or services for the Project are deemed to have provided to the Client contractual undertakings in respect of their work or services on terms materially no less onerous than those which apply to the Architect/Consultant under the Contract

 - 9.4.2 which is not remedied within the notice period by the defaulting Party, the Contract may be terminated by the non-defaulting Party giving at least 7 days' further written notice.
- 9.5 Where Services are suspended by either Party after serving notice under clause 9.1 or clause 9.2 and not resumed within 6 months, the Architect/Consultant has the right to treat performance of the Services as ended on giving at least 7 days' further written notice to the Client.

- 9.6 The direct or indirect effect of any period of suspension arising from a valid notice given under clause 9.1 or clause 9.2 shall be taken into account for the purposes of assessing compliance by the Architect/Consultant with the Project Programme.
- 9.7 Performance of the Services and/or other obligations may be terminated immediately by notice from either Party if:
- 9.7.1 the other Party becomes bankrupt or is subject to a receiving or administration order, and/or goes into liquidation, and/or becomes insolvent (as defined in the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996), and/or makes any arrangements with creditors

Schedule of Services

The specific services that the Architect/Consultant will carry out at each stage of the Project are listed below. The Services will be performed in accordance with the stages defined in the RIBA Plan of Work.

The Services are set out in four parts:

- Role Specifications – specify the architectural services roles to be performed, including any to be performed by subconsultants employed directly by the Architect/Consultant. Add any other roles required in addition to those defined in the RIBA Plan of Work.
- The Services – a comprehensive set of services for each of the architectural services roles is set out in the Schedule of Services.
- Other Services – these are services that the Architect/Consultant could undertake on behalf of the Client for the Project. If these services are to be undertaken for the Project, they will either be included in the Basic Fee or charged on a time-based or lump sum basis.
- Additional Services – these services are excluded from the Contract but may be instructed as additional services, if the need arises during the Project, and are subject to additional fees.

Role Specifications

The Services will be performed in the specified stages and include performance of any specified roles (where applicable, as defined in the RIBA Plan of Work) in the list below. Specified roles include any performed by subconsultants employed directly by the Architect/Consultant.

When completing the Role Specifications, where an option APPLIES tick ☒ the box to confirm that the role is being undertaken.

The services for the above Specialist Role(s) that the Architect/Consultant is undertaking will be added as an appendix to this Contract.

This Schedule of Services excludes the Building Regulations Principal Designer and CDM Regulations Principal Designer roles. Where the Architect/Consultant is also to be appointed to act in either of these roles on the Project, the RIBA recommends that the Architect/Consultant is appointed under a separate and distinct professional services contract (i.e. the RIBA Building Regulations Principal Designer Professional Services Contract and/or the RIBA CDM Regulations Principal Designer Professional Services Contract as appropriate).

The Services

The Services are listed by RIBA Plan of Work Stage and cover a broad range of services that the Architect/Consultant is authorised to perform and shall be responsible for. Make any necessary amendments to include any additional services required.

The Services are for a traditional form of procurement covering Stages 0 to 6. Services required as part of any ongoing (long-term) Stage 7 – Use activities are not listed as these services will be commissioned as a separate professional services or operating contract. If the Architect/Consultant is novated at any point during the Contract, the Services post Novation can be subsequently struck out and amended or redrafted to accord with the services subsequently required.

The Services being undertaken should be selected individually and ticked ☒ where an option APPLIES, provided that clause 3.1 and clause 3.2 of the Contract Conditions shall always apply.

Note:

- Services that relate only to HRBs are denoted by shading.
- These Services are in addition to advising the Client on whether the Project would include HRB Work if built to the Architect/Consultant's design once developed (regulation 11K(5) of the Building Regulations).

Stage 0 – Strategic Definition

It is anticipated that Stage 0 services will be commissioned as a separate professional services contract or letter of appointment. However, if the Architect/Consultant is appointed before the Project Brief is developed, Stage 0 services can be included.
